

Dof. Doc. #1883

The Official Gazette, Extra, 22 January, 1932.

The Stenographic Record of the Proceedings of the 60th Session of the House of Peers in the Imperial Diet, No. 2.

Sitting opened at 10:05 a.m., Tuesday, 21 January, 1932.

INOUEI, M., Minister of State.

The Foregoing Part Omitted.

The latest Incident in Manchuria and Mongolia is a serious question of the moment. The disturbances have come to an end upon the evacuation of the Chinese North-Eastern Army in CHINCHOW. A great enterprise to make Manchuria and Mongolia the peaceful home for the natives and foreign residents ^{yet remains for} future accomplishment. Of course Japan has no territorial ambition for her neighbors. She expects a regard for the existing treaties and a has a concern for her rights and interests. The open-door policy of Manchuria, which represents our fundamental national principle, should be based on this fact. It is not till then ^{we shall be able} that ^{we} can establish peace in the Orient, make its peculiar civilization prosper, and find eternal harmonious relations between Japan and China, contributing to the civilization of mankind. Our intentions are in this direction. If this foundation should be left insecure and unsettled, many troubles will arise again in future.

The Following Part Omitted.
